

“Bring The Ducks Home”

written by Loz Jones

Night School, Printing Works, Aylesbury Town
More than a hundred years since we've been around
Bucks finest, United we stand Delivering pride on every pitch in the land

Places, faces we'll never forget
No Buckingham Road, no time for regret
Need a new home for the future generations
It's time for the Ducks to end this mass migration

Bring The Ducks Home, Bring The Ducks Home
Bring The Ducks Home, Bring The Ducks Home
Bring The Ducks Home, Bring The Ducks Home
Come on you Ducks, Come on you Ducks.

Stories, legends and memories great Cup runs, Trevor Gould and England eighty eight Ninety four Hercules down on his knees
Did the 'Duck Walk' and took us into round three

chorus

Aylesbury, how did we let it go?

New heroes in the famous white and green
Marching up the leagues like a goal machine
United in the Vale, on the pitch and in the stands
We're coming home where we belong, players, fans and burger vans

chorus

Back your team, sing the songs
We're coming home where we belong
